BACKGROUND: (EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE)

Required Information

Attended Keystone College Served 10 year in the United States Air Force & National Guard Licensed Real Estate agent & Community Association Manager Notary My background in military service, professional licensing, and nonprofit leadership has provided me with strong governance experience organizational discipline and a collaborative approach to decision-making. Ten years in the United States air Force and Air National Guard instilled integrity, accountability and respect for established standards, As a licensed real estate professional with nearly three decades living and working on Sanibel, I understand local architecture land use considerations and the importance of preserving the island's unique character. Through serving on and leading nonprofit boards, I have gained experience in the structured oversight, thoughtful deliberation, and working constructively with a committee framework. I would be honored to apply this experience in service to the Historical Preservation Committee, helping to thoughtfully safeguard Sanibel's architectural heritage and community character for generation to come.
